PART D: GENERAL INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

General Excellence Scholarships are available to students who excel in academics and in addition demonstrate outstanding abilities in fields such as music, dance, drama or sport. Candidates with a strong second field will be considered favourably.

AUDITION AND INTERVIEW

- Shortlisted applicants may be contacted in April 2024 to arrange an audition and an interview (not all candidates will require an audition).
- The auditions may be recorded.

PART E: ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR PERFORMING ARTS CANDIDATES

Candidate’s intended course of study (please circle one or more)

- (1) Music
- (2) Dance
- (3) Drama

VIDEO APPLICATION

Students applying for a Performing Arts General Excellence scholarship must submit a VIDEO when submitting their application.

- The video must show an example of the candidate performing as a Soloist (Music applicants must be clearly featured if performing in an ensemble)
- ONE performance of EACH area of application must be submitted.
- Only ONE video for each area will be viewed, so ensure that the ONE performance chosen showcases the candidate’s ability.
- Only the first 2 minutes of EACH performance will be viewed.
- Video should be submitted via web link (YouTube, Vimeo etc.)

LIVE AUDITIONS

Once your application has been considered you may be required to perform in front of panel of staff from the Performing Arts Faculty. At the LIVE AUDITIONS:

- Applicants will be expected to present TWO short CONTRASTING solos performances. (Combined length no more than 10 minutes.)
- Candidates applying for a Performing Arts General Excellence Scholarship in multiple areas will be required to prepare TWO short CONTRASTING works for each area. The candidates may NOT be required to perform every piece in its entirety.
- Piano accompaniment or pre-recorded backing tracks should be used for music auditions unless the piece was originally written without accompaniment. Pittwater House can provide an accompanist if the music is handed to the school at least 5 days before the audition.
- Music applicants will be asked to perform a given sight-reading and aural test.
- Drama applicants will be asked to perform a cold script reading.
- Dance applicants will be asked to perform an improvisation.
- Basic props (a chair, table etc.) will be provided for drama. The audition time does not allow for major change of costume.
- A media player and bluetooth speaker can be provided at the audition if needed.

Please give a brief history of the candidate’s skills detailing the level reached (e.g. AMEB, Trinity, Suzuki for Musicians or RAD for Dancers), competitions and awards, and list participation in relevant ensembles, schools/clubs (attach additional sheets if required).
