HEAD OF GRAMMAR

Pittwater House is a well established and resourced K-12 co-educational school with more than 900 students located in the Northern Beaches of Sydney. Pittwater House is seeking an energetic and community minded leader to take the Senior Grammar School into its next stage of development and growth.

A member of the School Executive, the Head of Grammar is a Deputy Principal remunerated role responsible for the pastoral care and academic tracking of the 300 boys in the Grammar School (Years 7 – 12). The Head of Grammar supervises the Form Teachers and Stage Leaders in their responsibilities. The Head of Grammar will also be actively developing and reviewing the pastoral program for the secondary school in conjunction with the Head of College. The successful candidate will be suitably qualified and experienced in educational leadership.
