

PITTWATER HOUSE

HEAD OF BOYS' GRAMMAR

- Member of Executive Team; direct report to Principal
- Lead sub-school of approx. 400 boys Years 7-12
- Be part of exciting approach to combined single sex & co-education

Located on Sydney's Northern Beaches, Pittwater House was established in 1961 and caters for over 1,000 students from Pre-Kindergarten to Year 12. The school is renowned for its innovative 'Twin Schooling' structure in which male and female students socialise on a co-educational campus yet benefit from a tailored learning approach in mainly single-sex classes. Boys and girls start their educational journey together in Pre-Kindergarten, then are taught separately in their formative years, reconnect via co-educational Electives from Year 9 and ultimately regroup in co-educational classes for their final two years.

The Head of Boys' Grammar looks after about 400 boys in Years 7-12, alongside the Head of Girls' College. The position is a key part of the Executive team, reporting to the Principal. The role sits at Leadership Level 4 in the NSW Multi Enterprise Agreement. The position is tenured for 5 years, renewable by mutual agreement.

Candidates with experience in a middle management role such as a Head of Year or sub-School, or a curriculum leadership position, are particularly encouraged to apply.

Please obtain information about the position by emailing the consultant assisting the School, Kathy McLean, of Fish Nankivell, on kmclean@fishnankivell.com, with a short explanation of your interest in the position AND an up to date CV. Applications will close on Sunday 7 April 2024. A concurrent search is being conducted.

Fish Nankivell is a member of Penrhyn International with offices in major cities around the world.

Sydney | Melbourne | Canberra

www.fishnankivell.com

Fish • Nankivell